

An interesting combined case of the insulinoma with primary hyperparathyroidism

Introduction: Insulinomas are rare. Most of them are small and measure less than 2 centimeters in diameter. Insulinomas also tend to affect women more than men. They most commonly develop in people who are between ages 40 and 60. It is also very seldom combined with other endocrine tumors.

Case Study:

Notes: