

PUBLIC HEALTH, NUTRITION & EPIDEMIOLOGY

Muhammad Sarwat Mirza and Zulfqar Ali Sario

T<sup>o</sup> research especially related to reproductive health, nutrition and family planning, working with Health and Nutrition Development Society for last 22 years. He has obtained his MBBS and Master's in Public Health and had served at Department of Pediatrics, The Aga Khan University Hospital, Pakistan. He had experience of developing behavior change communication material for promotion of breast feeding, dietary habits of pregnant and lactating women, nutrition for children reproductive health issues of pregnant women to improve the birth outcome and reduce the low birth weight incidence and rapid assessment of drought-stricken malnourished children. He is presently serving as Research Advisor for community health initiatives related to food, nutrition and research to Allama Iqbal Open University, Pakistan for post graduate medical students.

Sarwat.mirza@hands.org.pk