

5th International Conference and Expo on

Novel Physiotherapies

March 19-20, 2018 | Berlin, Germany

The leading role of the heart in the vital functions of organs and systems of a holistic organism at the supramolecular level

The relevant and extremely important problem of modern advanced global science of all disciplines is the recognition of the existence of a unified "energy" according to the God's will in the whole Universe. The energy is one and ever alive, but