

Case 2

The second case was an infant female born at 32 weeks gestational age with a weight of 1640 g. She was born by caesarean delivery with and in facilitating the drainage of secretions [7]. Our first case was at 100% oxygen with high ventilation support. He was put on prone position and improved significantly with decreased FIO