

G

Journal of Palliative Care & Medicine is a peer-reviewed journal that focuses on the clinical, ethical, and psychosocial aspects of palliative care. The journal covers a wide range of topics, including end-of-life care, symptom management, and the role of the palliative care team. It is a key resource for healthcare professionals and researchers in the field.

Abstract
Introduction
Discussion
Conclusion
References