

Cancer Clinical Trials and Its Phases

Paraskev Katsakori***

Department of Pharmacology, University of Patras, Greece

Editorial

Clinical trials are research concentrates on that affect individuals. Through Clinical trials, specialists discover better approaches to further develop medicines and quality of life for individuals with disease.

Specialists design cancer clinical trials to test better approaches to:

- Treat malignant growth
- Discover and analyze malignant growth
- Prevent cancer
- Oversee indications of cancer and incidental effects from its