

neonatal seizures on child advancement, as well as the impacts caused due to the COVID-19 widespread. As children are able to continue formative administrations, seriously focused on and utilitarian formative treatments may be required to moderate the impacts of benefit disturbance in children with neonatal seizures.

Accepted:
None

1.