

Recommendation Letter

Dear Sir,

It is my pleasure to inform you that I have known you since you graduated from the Faculty of Pharmacy, Tanta University, Egypt, in the year 2011, with a B.Sc. in Pharmacy.

During your studies, you were a diligent student and a member of the Student Union. You were also involved in various extracurricular activities, including sports and cultural events. Your academic performance was excellent, and you were recognized as a top student in your class. You were also a member of the Student Union and served as a representative of the students in various forums.

After graduation, you worked as a pharmacist in a hospital for several years. During this period, you demonstrated a strong commitment to your profession and a dedication to providing quality patient care. You were also involved in various community service activities and received several awards for your contributions.

Based on my knowledge of your academic and professional achievements, I believe you are a highly qualified and motivated individual who would be a valuable asset to any organization. I strongly recommend you for any position you are applying for.
